

Garrett Park Film Society

Friday night, July 11th

Dinner and a movie at Town Hall on Friday night, July 11! Join us at 7:00 pm and buy some chili, hot dogs and beans, beer and pop. Then, c'mon inside at 8:00 pm and watch the riotously sophomoric Western parody, Mel Brooks' "Blazing Saddles." As funny as this movie is at home, we think it'll be way more fun at the Town Hall, among Garrett Park friends and neighbors.

We hope to see all Film Society members for this event. Admission is $5 for non-members and we hope you'll consider an individual or household membership in the GPFS.

But, rest assured, it'll be fun stuff for kids of all ages (including grown-ups). Bring your blankets, pillows, sleeping bags and stuffed animals. Settle in for a fun, family, community activity! We'll be selling hot dogs and pizza and movie food and drinks, too. So come hungry! Open to all Garrett Parkers!
